Information We Collect
Ark Spawn Commands does NOT collect or store personal data beyond what is automatically provided by Discord for the Bot to function (e.g., server IDs, command inputs).

Use of Data
Any transient data received from Discord is used solely to operate the Bot's features and is not retained.

Data Sharing
No data is sold, shared, or disclosed to third parties.

Your Rights
Because no personal data is stored, no user action is generally required. For inquiries, contact 0x.rian on Discord (https://discord.gg/4EpbRHUxns).
